"Two big factors in the committee's work," said a member yesterday, "will be the replacement of soldiers in civilian positions and the Americanization of foreign elements in the various sections of California."

Step Over Party Lines to Aid Wilson.

Senator Mann (above) and Senator McCumber of North Dakota. The former says the great war will have been fought in vain if something is not done to prevent further ones. The Dakota took occasion during his address yesterday on the proposed constitution of the league, as urged by the President, to deplore some recent criticisms by fellow-Republican Senators as "far-fetched."

PRESIDENT READY TO SAIL.

Wilson to Speak in New York Tonight, Then Again Start for Paris.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Wilson tonight was ready to return to New York from his stay in Washington, having transacted his business days of his stay in Washington all pending business except such as will engage his attention at the Capitol tomorrow in the final session of this Congress. Immediately after adjournment he will leave for New York on his way to Paris.

Working at top speed on the last day available to him in the White House, the President cleared his schedule to get out for a day after tomorrow with Mrs. Wilson, and then to return to Paris.

Large crowds followed the President as he left the White House, and finally the police had to clear a way for him to the train. Several times the President stopped to speak to wounded soldiers.

After opening the conference of the League of Nations this morning in the east room of the White House, the President had his first day of correspondence and conference with the President.

When he received the Ambassador from Argentina, the President was met by the Argentine Ambassador, who presented his credentials. Later he received a delegation representing the Argentine Republic, who presented a letter from the Argentine Republic.

The President's office this afternoon and evening was crowded with visitors. The President's office this afternoon and evening was crowded with visitors.

Plans for the President's departure tomorrow remained unchanged. He will go from the capital to New York, arriving there about 3:30 p.m. and will go direct to the Metropolitan Opera-house to speak on the League of Nations.

Wilson said, "that notwithstanding the confusion and dislocation of interests inevitable in such a critical period, the relations between our two countries have shown no strain and the friendship between our peoples has remained unimpaired."

"With the return of more stable conditions many difficulties which still hamper us will gradually decrease so that we can even now look forward with hope to the full resumption of all normal activities."

Negotiations as to Supply on Today.

German Shipping Expected to be Turned Over to Allies Without Delay.

American Representatives Depart for Spa for Conference with Enemy.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]
COPENHAGEN, March 3.—Marshal Foch has informed the German armistice commission, according to a Berlin report, that negotiations regarding the food supply of Germany and financial and shipping questions will begin at Spa Tuesday.

Gen. Nadant, representative of Marshal Foch at Spa, it is added, has told the German armistice commission the French government has decided to send a new mission to Berlin to study the food supply. The mission will be headed by M. Laqueuille.

PARIS, March 3.—Representatives of the United States Shipping Board and the United States Navy, with representatives of other powers, have departed for Spa to complete with the Germans arrangements for the release of German ships in German ports and certain German vessels in neutral ports.

Virtually all details have been arranged and it is anticipated the vessels will be turned over without delay.

The subject of Rumanian rights was again under discussion by the Peace Conference commission, appointed to deal with it, at sessions held yesterday and today. In this connection, Rumanian and Serbian claims were examined into. The official statement reporting the sessions says:

RUMANIA.—"The commission for the study of Rumanian territorial claims held its fifth session yesterday morning and its tenth session this morning, under the chairmanship of M. Tardieu, and continued the examination of Rumanian and Serbian claims."

The commission on reparation of damage held a meeting at 10:30 o'clock this morning with Louis Loucheur, the French Finance Minister, in the chair. The statement issued after this meeting read:

"The commission, after having dealt with certain questions of procedure on the order of the day, decided that the subcommittee, should make every effort to expedite their work in order that their reports might be submitted to the full commission with the least possible delay."

PORTS.—Conditions under which the international regime of ports will be applied were agreed upon by the subcommittee of the Peace Conference commission on the international regime of ports, waterways and railways at its meeting today. This was the first subject taken up. The announcement of the meeting said:

"The second subcommittee of the commission on the international regime of ports, waterways and railways met this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Ministry of Public Works."

"Examination of the draft reparation of ports subject to an international regime was continued. After an exchange of views, the subcommittee arrived at a decision as to the conditions under which this regime is to be applied."

DISARMAMENT.—The disarmament of Germany, from the point of view of the military, naval and air experts of the Allied and associated powers, was discussed by the Supreme War Council at its meeting today. The official announcement follows:

"The Supreme War Council met today from 2 to 5 o'clock p.m. They discussed the report of the military, naval and air experts on the disarmament of the enemy. The next meeting will take place Wednesday, March 5, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon."

The council of the great powers considered today the military, naval and aerial terms for the disarmament of the enemy, but did not reach a conclusion, which was deferred until Thursday. The main

[RECEIVED DISPATCH.]
WASHINGTON, March 3.—The Marines who fought at Chateau Thierry and made American history there in so brilliant fashion are to have their permanent base at San Diego. Within twenty months from today their $2,000,000 permanent home will be finished, and then the soldiers of the sea will be ready to move on the double-track to Central America in the twinkling of an eye.

Bids were opened here at the Navy Department and at San Diego at the same hour this morning. Two bids were filed here and several at San Diego. It will be two or three days before the award will be announced, but from the figures already known it is certain that the award can now be made for the entire set of seven buildings which comprise the first unit. The bids were called for in such a manner that if the prices were excessive the award could be made for six buildings and the other added later.

The two bids here were as follows: Prachen Bros. Chicago, total $1,228,000; Friedt Bros. Chicago, total $1,191,255.

CONGRESS DIES HARD.

Bitter Strife in the Closing Hours.

Threatened Republican Filibuster Starts; Many Bills are Doomed.

Sixty-fifth Session Ends at Noon Today; Deficiency Measure may Pass.

[RECEIVED DISPATCH.]
WASHINGTON, Tuesday, March 4.—When the Sixty-fifth Congress dies at noon today it will leave unfinished some of the most important legislation presented to it—in fact, some of the most important work left unfinished by any Congress. Furthermore, it will die amid the most bitter strife between the executive and the legislative since Cleveland's time.

In the latter Senate hall the discussion of the third deficiency bill of the third session of this Congress continued through the night. Its passage has been agreed to but its enactment will be in eleven-hour travail if at all and it will be made into law almost wholly because the railroad men have at once $175,000,000 to pay obligations made and improvements authorized.

These are the legislative candidates: Oil land leasing bill. Water power control bill. LAND MEASURE LOOT. Reclamation of arid, stump and swamp land for homes for returning soldiers and sailors. Bill creating Roosevelt national park.

LA FOLLETTE DEMANDS AN IMMEDIATE EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, Republican, in an address begun shortly after 2 a.m., urged an immediate extra session of Congress, vigorously criticizing President Wilson for failing to consult with the Senate in conducting the peace negotiations.

"A plain violation of the Constitution," Mr. La Follette asserted.

Senator La Follette said the President, if he failed to call a special session of Congress immediately, would be following the example of the "imperial autocrats" of Europe, who refused freedom of expression to legislative bodies during the war.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, introduced a resolution late last night proposing that the Senate go on record as opposing the approval of the constitution of the League of Nations as now drawn and favoring immediate conclusion of peace with Germany without awaiting the working out of the league plan.

Senator Lodge requested unanimous consent for immediate consideration of the resolution, but Senator Martin of Virginia, Democratic leader, and Senator Swanson of the same State, joined in objection and the resolution went over.

Unable to secure consideration of his measure, Senator Lodge read the names of thirty-seven members of the next Senate, which will consider the peace treaty, who, the minority leader said, favor his resolution.

While opposing the proposed constitution, the resolution would express the desire of the Senate "that the nations of the world should unite to promote peace and general disarmament."

It also said the proposal for a League "to insure the permanent peace of the world should be taken up for careful and serious consideration" after the peace treaty had been concluded.

In the list read by Mr. Lodge were the names of several Republican Senators-elect. The total of thirty-seven is more than one-third of the membership, or enough to defeat ratification of the peace treaty, for which a two-thirds vote is required. A few Senators whose names were not on the list, Mr. Lodge said, also had advised him of their support of his resolution.

The list was inserted in the record by the Republican leader after Democratic Leader Martin and Senator Swanson of Virginia had raised simultaneous objection to consideration of the resolution, which he had introduced after long conference with minority members and communications by telegraph and telephone with Republican Senators and Senators-elect not in Washington.

While opposing the constitution as drafted, the resolution set forth that it was the desire of the Senate "that the nations of the world should unite to promote peace and general disarmament." It also said it was the sense of the Senate that "the negotiations on the part of the United States should immediately be directed to the utmost expedition of the urgent business of negotiating peace terms with Germany," and that then the league proposal should be taken up for careful and serious consideration.

Senator Lodge, in reading the list, said that, in justice to three or four others, "I ought to say that we have been unable to reach them, but if they give their approval their names will be added."

Several Republican Senators refused to sign the list, it is said, some because they did not believe the resolution went far enough.

Although not specifically declared in the resolution, Senator Lodge and other Republican leaders explained privately that the prime purpose of tonight's action was to serve notice upon President Wilson, the American peace commissioners, and especially the peace delegations of foreign countries, that enough Senators of the next Senate are now formally pledged, by signature, against the League of Nations constitution as now drafted, to prevent its ratification. They expressed hope and confidence their action would compel fundamental revision of the league charter.

Democratic leaders considered some action in the nature of a reply to the Republicans' move. Chairman Hitchcock of the Foreign Relations Committee, it was stated, was considering advising the Senate on the subject. He pointed out privately that the resolution recites the present league charter "should" not be accepted by the United States.

Senator Hitchcock said that, while the Republicans' effort was to present a "fait accompli" declaration of opposition to the present league constitution, the term used did not necessarily imply they would vote against the present draft.

Poinsett pointed out that the constitution opposed merely is a committee report, Senator Swanson said: "The resolution and the Republicans in endorsing it do not say they would defeat a final peace treaty containing the present league constitution."

This unexpected move by Republican leaders, designed primarily as a means of formally notifying the Peace Conference and the country as to the views of many members of the new Senate on this subject, followed many hours of debate on the league constitution in the Senate and brief addresses in the House. In the Senate the constitution was attacked by Senator Sherman of Illinois, Republican, and defended by Senator McCumber of North Dakota, a Republican member of the Foreign Relations Committee.

Republican Leader Mann opened the House discussion. While not specifically endorsing the league plan as proposed, Mr. Mann declared the war would have been fought in vain if some move was not taken to prevent future wars. His statement was applauded by the Democratic members. Later, Representative Norton of North Dakota, Republican, who returned recently from Europe, voiced his approval of the league and

*Reason for Optimism, Though

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

James F. Morley's re-entry into baseball is a possibility of the near future. He is mentioned prominently as business manager and part owner of the Los Angeles club for the coming season.

One of the earlier rumors was that he had succeeded Charles Weber in the ownership of the Angels. When Morley accepted a position in the court under Judge Hines, the rumor was started that Morley would succeed him at Washington.

Questioned Morley in regard to the rumor, he stated that he never had been connected with sports or baseball on a salary basis. Beyond that, he had Powers' refusal to discontinue his proposition which is pending.

I have it from an authoritative source that the one-time manager is in the market for a slice of the Los Angeles stock, and there is a possibility that the deal will be put across. In that event, Morley will become the business manager of the club.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR SANTA
PROGRESSING.

A. C. Robbins, member of the general committee of the Santa Monica Road Race, and one of the well-known automobile dealers of Los Angeles, has been placed in charge of ticket sales and parking space for the Santa Monica road race, which takes place on the famous course, Saturday, March 15, beginning at 1 o'clock.

Tickets for the grand stand, boxes and for parking will be on sale at Dyer's and at race headquarters in Santa Monica, beginning next Thursday morning, stated Robbins, who yesterday afternoon with A. M. Young, chairman of the Race Committee, was busy locating the several entrances to the course.

Progress in banking the turns and building barriers will make it possible for practice to begin Monday morning, according to A. G. Faulkner, who is in charge of policing the course, "San Francisco and Oakland already have their special train sold, even to the last upper berth. The fans up there are now trying to locate some steamer that they may charter and make the trip by ocean. I never saw a more enthusiastic bunch over the race than the crowd in the bay cities," said Faulkner, who has just returned from another business trip to the north.

The new entry blanks of the A.A.U. have just been received and as fast as they are signed an announcement of entries will be made by Young. Seventeen entries are already assured, he said.

W. W. Brown, driver of a twenty-four-valve Hudson special arrived yesterday with a mechanic. His car also arrived by express. Brown is the first out-of-town driver to arrive. He has also entered the same car in the Indianapolis race, which is slated for May 21. It is said that the Hudson special is a demon for speed.

ASSISTS IN HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS.

Tad Wiseman is now to assume the role of assistant athletic instructor at Los Angeles High School. Wiseman is probably one of the greatest all-around athletes ever developed in Southern California and is often referred to as being the best athlete of the Wiseman family, which is saying something.

Wiseman graduated from Los Angeles High School some three years ago and later entered the University of Michigan. While at college he made quite a reputation as a football player and was captain-elect of the Michigan football varsity before entering the service.

After entering the Aviation Corps, Wiseman was commissioned a lieutenant and has just been given his discharge. He will assist Glen Whittle with track and football.

FIRST POLO SINCE ANTE-BELLUM DAYS.

INITIAL GAME AT SANTA BARBARA—THREE CONTESTS EACH WEEK.

The first game of polo played in Santa Barbara since before America entered the war was staged Saturday on the Montecito grounds. Yesterday (Monday) the first of a series of thrice-a-week contests was played. For the next two months, and probably longer, there will be contests put on each Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

Plans are now being laid for a tournament that will draw California society to Santa Barbara during the latter part of March or early in April. It is the intention to have six or eight teams entered. D. M. Linnard, owner of Hotel Belvedere, formerly the Potter, has offered a beautiful silver trophy as a prize to the winning team.

In Saturday's game H. C. Cox, Dr. E. J. Beseke, Lieut. J. Hazard and E. Kramer played a team composed of C. W. Dabney, C. W. Dabney, Jr.; E. E. Bush and Miss Esther Hammond. The latter squad won, scoring three goals to the other's nothing.

Miss Hammond can hold her own with the best of the men players and doubtless will be a member of the first team representing Montecito in the coming tournament. She owns a string of polo ponies equal to the best in the country.

ENTRIES ARE TO CLOSE TONIGHT.

Entries for the A.A.U. basketball tournament will close this evening. There will be a meeting of all the chairmen of the various A.A.U. committees at the Los Angeles Athletic Club, at which time plans will be made for the coming spring sports.

At the meeting of the Basketball Committee this evening, all managers and captains are cordially invited to attend as the schedule for the tourney will be drawn up. There will be three divisions represented and it is planned, according to Bob Weaver, vice-president of the A.A.U., to stage the first game next Thursday evening.

SETTLE DRAW.

Earl Baird and Jimmie Dundee will box the main event at Doyle's Vernon arena tonight. It will be the second meeting between the two boys, they having boxed a draw a few weeks ago. The bout will be Baird's fifth start at Vernon, while Dundee has made a big hit by his classy bouts before the local fans.

The semi-wind-up will see Young Farrell and Charlie Roselli in action. Several weeks ago the two 115-pounders put up a fast battle with honors even, but Roselli had been idle for some time and blames condition for his failure to win. Both have trained hard for their bout tonight and if they repeat their bout of some weeks ago they will be the hit of the show.

Frankie Garcia will make another start when he meets Ted Frenchie. In Garcia's first bout at Vernon Frenchie was his opponent and Garcia was a rather easy winner.

Billy Wilson and Mike Doll are scheduled to tangle at catchweights. Each weighs around 110 pounds and they are the biggest boxers on the card.

Jimmy Barry will meet Tommy Nelson, and Fred Harris and Louis Garcia will meet in the curtain-raiser.

Fred Winsor will referee.

WANTS TO PLAY
KIRKLAND AGAIN.

Charles E. Jordan, Los Angeles Athletic Club instructor, who was defeated last week by George Kirkland of the Jonathan Club, Pacific Coast pocket-billiard champion, is challenging again. He is offering Kirkland a chance to defend the title and pick up $250 on the side if he can win again. The challenger wants to play for 450 balls, or 180, and would have the match in about a month, the date and place remaining open for the present.

Jordan is Canadian pocket-billiard champion and holder of the Coast three-cushion title, and had never been defeated in a match game in either until he bumped into Kirkland at the L.A.A.C. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights and was beaten 450 to 180. The record of the match, which will interest pocket billiards in view of the new challenge, follows:

	Balls	Runs	Shots	Time
Kirkland	124	124	124	2:15
Jordan	180	180	180	2:15
Total	304	304	304	4:30

REPRESENT CLUB.

When the swimming season is ushered in this season at the Alameda Park Baths, Alameda, Cal., Los Angeles will be represented by three local swimming stars and who are members of the Athletic Club. Lady Langer, probably one of the greatest middle-distance swimmers in the world, and who is being looked to by authorities of the aquatic sport to hang up some new records this year, will be one of the contestants.

Dorothy Burns, who is the undefeated back-stroke champion, and who can be relied upon to hold her own with the best of the crawl-stroke swimmers of the fair sex will be on the programme. Also, Jack Kilburn, heralded as the coming Coast champion at the 10 and 100-yard free style, is out to annex a couple of victories in his pet events. The above swimmers will be under the watchful eye of Vance Vieth. An exhibition will also be given by Vieth.

The local swimmers will be opposed by the best aquatic stars of San Francisco. It is probable that Norman Ross will participate.

HARRIS AND FRANK TEAM KNOCK MAPLES OVER
FOR 1113.

The Coast record for single team game was shattered by the Harris & Frank team on the Majestic alleys in the opening games of the Class A League by knocking the Maples over for 1113. The former record was held by the old Meier team, 1111, bowled February 3, 1912.

The Harris & Frank total for the series, 3113, is a remarkable score, but doesn't quite come up to the Meier record of 3149. This league was organized for the purpose of giving practice to teams which try to attend the Pacific Coast Bowling Association, which convenes at San Francisco in May.

The Harris & Frank and H.P.O.N. No. 99 are two of the teams that will represent Los Angeles.

THE SIMPLE LIFE.
The returning soldiers do not seem passionately in favor of the various projects for placing them on farms, although many of them seem to have a keen eye for a chicken.

THE HIGH COST.
With certain brands of champagne selling at one hundred dollars a bottle there is said to be intense suffering among some of the Broadway chorus girls—that is Broadway, New York.

THE THING NEEDED.
Won't some Carnegie J. Rockefeller arise and create a fund or foundation whereby our breweries can be converted into libraries and art galleries and thereby convert a worry into a benediction?

OFFHAND.
The Senate passed the Victory Loan bill of $7,000,000,000 on a Sunday morning and without a roll call. This indicates that the country has become accustomed to dealing in millions in a rather informal manner.

THE MILKY WAY.
There is no limit to municipal adventure. The Michigan town of Kalamazoo is voting bonds of $150,000 for the establishment of a city pasturization plant and the next thing will be the establishment of municipal milk routes. They are going to save the babies if they have to begin at the base of supply.

IN THE CONCRETE.
Aside from the building of ships of concrete they are now making oil tanks of that material. Some with a capacity as small as ten gallons have been turned out and are vastly more portable and useful than would ordinarily be expected. Pretty soon they will be making pants buttons of concrete and then we'll all be happy.

IN THE DEPTHS.
Peace terms are expected to make utterly impossible the further use of the submarine. And this just as the United States had launched the supreme undersea dog—a craft exceeding 200 feet in length and with a cruising radius of nearly 10,000 miles. Isn't there some way of finding these critters for salvage work in the great depths?

THE HAIR OF THE DOG.
Now they have formed a Dog's Wool Association. The idea is to have everybody wear the clippings from their Spaniels and Pekinese pets, as well as use the pelts of long-haired canines. A superior grade of wool can thus be had, and it mixes well with other wools for the production of fine fabrics. It does thereby appear that the hair of the dog is good for something else besides the bite.

SENATOR SHERMAN'S SPOOKS.
Senator Sherman of Illinois has succumbed to the fetish of ancestor worship of which a cult has mysteriously developed in the Federal Senate. To these sealoats the League of Nations is the incarnation of anti-Chinese; it is a beast with four legs, horns, on each of which is emplaced a struggling people. All the superstitions of the past seem to have taken form in the vagaries of Senator Sherman's brilliant but fantastic imagination. In his address before the Senate yesterday he pictured the executive council of the league as

The creation of a nameless thing to sit in star-chamber judgment and decree implicit obedience to its mandates. . . . By a snake it will engulf our commerce, close our exchanges, destroy credits, leave our commerce rotting on our pliers, shut the Panama Canal, order Congress to declare war, levy taxes, appropriate money, raise and ordain armies and navies and dispatch our men to any quarter of the globe to fight and die because an alien executive council has willed it.

This "nameless thing" seems to have given birth to a whole colony of spooks that people the brains of the elder Senators. Senators Lodge and Borah engaged in shadow boxing with a few of them; but Senator Sherman is haunted by them all. At times the shapes appear. "Apparently an open covenant of peace," he declaimed, "is a masked charter of unceasing war; the voice of Mars, but the hand of Woodrow." Again it is a "Pandora's box full of evil" which would "empty upon the American people the aggregated calamities of the world." Cassius and his fellow-conspirators were given speaking parts by the eloquent Senator to curb the ambitions of the new Caesar.

Meantime the wonder continues to grow why none of these spooks are etherized or materialized outside of the Senate cham-

IMPERIAL JAPAN, REPUBLICAN CHINA

China has appealed to the Peace Council for the annulment of the treaty forced upon her, after a naval demonstration, by Japan in 1915.

Japan, has semi-officially defended the treaty, the method of obtaining it, and has intimated that war will follow any determined effort to cancel it.

The situation is difficult; and it is somewhat discouraging to see how quickly the sword is rattled at the very table where a League of Nations is being formed when any one of the Allies feels she is being deprived of war loot.

The Allies have recognized that Japan has "special interests" in China; but they can scarcely fail to recognize that China is not only one of them, an ally, in the late war, but also that one of the inspiring principles which rallied the world to their aid was the declaration to relieve helpless races and countries from the aggression of powerful neighbors.

Japan deserves sympathy. Her proud and industrious and valiant people have been thwarted in every way they have wished. They defeated China in the 90's and Europe cried, "Hands off the spoils." They defeated Russia and again Europe, with Germany in the lead, intervened—and grabbed for herself. So Japan, made wise and determined by her past humiliations, went into this war resolute to get and keep what she wanted.

If thwarted now Japan, in cumulative rage, may resort to the desperate futility of the sword and with reason—she has scant faith in the honor, promises and motives of the Occident. But of course a threat of war to contravene the principles of Versailles is not likely to greatly influence or, if war is delivered, to embarrass the veteran armies that crushed Germany.

JAPAN came late into world affairs and was hoodwinked, bullied, bluffed, thwarted until she seems to have—and with plenty of historical justification—deliberately chosen the craft of her rivals. Diplomacy is a crooked game and probably always will be; but it will never again be reduced to the cold, selfish basis anterior to 1914. So Japan makes a mistake if she believes that the methods which reached their apogee in Prussian duplicity and force will be favorably countenanced in this new era. The Allies have lost the war if they do not live up to the principles for which they fought.

The treaty which Japan, admittedly by force, exacted from China puts that enormous and helpless country under such restrictions as amount to a protectorate; and it is a similar protectorate to that which Japan not many years ago insured the integrity of Korea—now a part of the Japanese Empire.

A few years ago the Japanese were greatly incensed by being called "Mongolians" and classed racially with the Chinese. Now their publicists are whitening a slightly different tint as a concession to the Allied pronouncement that in Europe and elsewhere an alien race shall not impose its government upon other peoples. The "Oriental belongs to the Orientals," say the Japanese with specious conviction; that is the difference between the Japanese and the Chinese is as complete as the difference between the German and the English.

And Japan played diplomacy, after the manner of Berlin, when she forced her treaty which placed the financial and police and industrial systems of China under her thumb. She hesitated to announce that treaty to the world and, when she did announce it, she "inadvertently" omitted the several stringent clauses and conditions of which China now complains. Japan is now indignant with China for having violated the secrecy of that treaty—a treaty that is supposed to have no secrecy since Japan presumably furnished copies of it to interested nations.

WITH all due respect to Japan and with much sympathy for her past disappointments, it is nevertheless apparent that she is now pursuing a devious and unbecomingly course. True, she is trying to pay the Occident back in coin melted and forced upon her in the 90's and 1900's. And though her arguments are adroit, they are neither honest nor convincing. The assistance of capturing a German port that lay beside her own threshold, of raising her flag over isolated and undefended German islands of the Pacific, of patrolling distant waters from which the last of the German fleet had been swept by the British navy, of manufacturing munitions for which she was paid richly and on the nail would not (even under the Old World regime of spoliation) be considered as of quite enough service for the reward of such concessions and authority as Japan demands of China.

Japan wishes the world to consider that treaty (made under duress) as inviolable, and bids the Occident remember that it was the sanctity of treaties that brought England and possibly America into the war. In any era but this, the new one, such sophistry might be applied to international relations; but in this era, when the world is for any profitable crime—though there is not a civilized nation wherein an agreement made under duress is binding.

Japan frankly admits that the treaty was made with a sword at China's throat; but naively explains with clever vagueness that "a glance at the modern history of China will show that most, if not all, of her foreign treaties were negotiated and concluded more or less under duress." True, "Most" have been; but practically all of such treaties have been forced upon China to open her door, not to a favored nation, as Japan now insists upon being, but to the world.

Applause from the Gallery!

the state and exercises the sovereign power; that the constitution can be amended only by his sanction; that he is not only the commander-in-chief of the army and navy, may appoint and dismiss all civil and military officials, may fix the war and peace footing of the army and navy, and has the power to declare war and make peace, conclude treaties and agreements with foreign countries; and may, at his wish, declare the empire in a state of siege and suspend all rights of subjects during such a period; he has the power to call and dissolve the lower house of Parliament and not only to initiate and veto all projects of legislation coming from the legislative bodies, but he has the power to make ordinances which shall have the force of law in the case the Legislature is not in session. When it is recalled that he has the power to dissolve the Legislature it becomes forcibly apparent that this Emperor has no restrictions upon his will. Technically he cannot create a statute, but he can pronounce a new ordinance that will have the force of law!

Such is the government of Japan; and with such a government Japan comes asking the Allies—who fought to destroy the power of kings and to make democracy safe for the world—to uphold her in imposing a financial, police and industrial protectorate upon republican China. And it must not be forgotten that it was with a similar treaty and a similar profession of good faith that Japan so very recently began and completed the absorption of Korea.

SENSELESS LABOR UNIONISTS.
Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain proved more than a match for the anarchists and Bolsheviks last week when they tried to capture the industrial congress, which was sitting in London, and to secure an improvement of a resolution asking the government to pay the whole of the British war debt by a conscription of capital.

The Premier attended the conference to deliver an address of welcome; but he remained to listen to some of the proceedings, and when the Bolshevik agitators attempted a stampede he joined in the debate. In one of his characteristic and forceful addresses he warned the union-labor delegates that the British unions must purge themselves of radical and anarchistic elements or the whole union-labor movement would fail. He said that the unions must not permit themselves to be made breeding places for anarchy and sedition.

When ballots were taken the radicals found to their confusion that the Premier had taken the conference away from them; that the force of his logic was as irresistible in a labor conference as in the House of Commons. In his address the Premier asserted that capital was as necessary to reconstruction as labor, and that any attempt to confiscate wealth would strike the working harder than the capitalist. The Bolsheviks were contending for a confiscation of capital and turning all the industries over to the workers.

The cause of radicalism in France has gone swiftly backward since the attempted assassination of Premier Clemenceau by a French Socialist. In this country the exposure of the revolutionary plans of the radicals who engineered the Seattle general strike has occasioned a split between the fanatical and conservative elements in the union themselves. The rank and file of union labor in the United States will not follow the paths of Bolshevism. There is a minority faction composed of I.W.W.'s, intellectual anarchists and Bolsheviks who are seeking to Russiandize America; but this faction has not yet succeeded in dominating the unions, and its influence appears to be steadily on the wane.

Apparently the conservative element in the Seattle unions learned their lesson. When B. Nauman, chairman of the General Strike Committee, made his report telling of the failure to accomplish what its leaders had been duped into expecting he is reported by the press as having added:

Union labor in Seattle has paid its price for following in the lead of reckless demagogues and anarchists. Bolshevism, I.W.W.ism and revolution shall not be preached on the floor of this council. I do not propose to tolerate it. And there are others who feel as I do, who are compelled to listen to revolutionary speeches in the organization.

It is to be hoped that there are enough men in the labor unions of the country and the convictions of this distinguished leader to crush the anarchistic movement in the union councils; for it is upon the labor unions that the Bolsheviks delivered their first attack. The Times continues to believe that the majority of the labor-union men in this country are both loyal and honest, and that they are making an effort to rid their councils of the undesirable. The atrocities committed in Europe under the name of Bolshevism are so numerous and so horrible that the Bolshevik propaganda have not been able to deceive the American workmen concerning actual conditions where the Bolsheviks are in power. The workers of America know that there are millions of the laboring classes dying in Russia of starvation, and that they owe their plight to their error in following the confiscatory policies advocated by Lenin and Trotsky; they now know where the confiscation of wealth, preached by those demagogues, ends.

In the beginning the red guards were empowered to despoil only the rich. They were organized as the protectors of the poor. But it seems that there was not enough liquid wealth in the hands of the rich to keep the Bolshevik republic going. The working classes themselves had ceased to labor on the assurance that they would be fed and clothed by the wealth taken from the rich. Conditions have reached a state where poor and rich alike are robbed. In the streets of many of the Russian cities men and women are stripped of their very clothes and left in below-zero weather to perish. Production stopped when it became apparent that the producers would be robbed of their harvest. Confiscation has worn itself out, like a great confederation, for lack of material, and the condition of the hapless populations of the Bolshevik provinces is the most miserable known to history.

These facts are known to all classes in this country. They have led to the banding together of honest, industrious men against the thieves and mad theorists who would have the Russian tragedy repeated in the United States. America is famed for its industries. Its working classes are the most intelligent and the most industrious in the world. American soil produces more per acre than elsewhere, and the American workman can create more wealth between sun and sun than the workman of any other country. It is by reason of this superiority of production that America has forced so steadily forward to the position which it now occupies, the industrial center of the universe. That position will be maintained just as long as the honest and industrious elements of the country combine against the anarchists, profiteers and robbers. Grafters and dynamite have thrived here and elsewhere during the war; but they must not be given places in the era of reconstruction into which the world is passing. The honest and industrious elements of the country have been warned against them. They must be driven like wild wolves to the wilderness before the world will be safe for its women and children.

WAR MAILS AND "WELFARE BETTERS."

BY FREDERICK H. MASKIN.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

WASHINGTON (D. C.) Feb. 23.—The civilized world is just beginning to repair that wonderful intricate web of communication which put every part of it in touch with every other part.

Neither the wonder nor the convenience of our international mail system was ever appreciated until war came along and ripped the delicate pattern of it all to pieces, leaving whole nations cut off from the rest of the world. During this war millions of people have tasted the agony of not knowing whether a loved one was dead or alive. Many a mother in this country has worried for four years over children who were refugees or soldiers in some "whimsical" land in Europe.

The complete repair of international mail service will be a long, slow task, but it is well begun. Already in Rumania, Finland, Belgium, Alsace, Lorraine, Syria, Palestine, Mesopotamia, Bulgaria, Luxembourg and Turkey a limited mail service is again established. Postcards and letters can be sent from the United States to most countries, but as yet no provision is made for handling parcel post.

Throughout Germany, except portions held by the Allies, and throughout the one-time Austro-Hungarian Empire, there are still no mail connections.

By the terms of the Trading-with-the-Enemy Act a letter is a transaction, and accordingly no mail has until now been allowed to pass from this country into enemy territory. Similar measures enacted by the other Allied nations made communications with subjects of enemy countries almost impossible. By consent of the War Trade Board trading-with-the-enemy regulations have now been modified to permit the exchange of letter mail.

Besides enemy territory, large sections of Europe and Asia are still shut off from the outside world by the abnormal conditions which war has created. Siberia, for instance, is without any mail connection whatever, except in very restricted areas such as Archangel and the Murmansk coast, where Allied and American troops are stationed. In order to keep in touch with her forces in Siberia Russia has kept up a mail steamship service to these points, and the United States has been able to take advantage of this convenience.

Unsettled conditions in Russia make regular mail service impossible. At present the Czechoslovak army holds the important Trans-Siberian Railway as far as Perm, thus cutting off the means of transport to the east, even if it could be delivered. The Czechoslovaks will arrange communication as soon as affairs are sufficiently settled to make any system possible.

Unstable unions in Allied territory were largely to devastation and enemy occupation. Where a town is wrecked and most of its population starving, carried away or dead the postal system generally goes to pieces. Thus, in the devastated lands of Italy and Serbia isolation has been complete. The remarkable vitality of the refugee Belgian government was shown in the fact that it was able to set up offices in Havre and established a limited postal system.

There always remained one medium of intercourse between the United States and the shut-in lands of Europe—the Red Cross. By sending "welfare messages" to subjects of Allied nations who were under enemy control, the service was as well as for the benefit of the Allies. Later it was extended as well to enemy subjects, wherever they were shut off from postal communication with other countries because of war conditions.

The sender of a message to a country without communication with the United States prepares it on a special form. It goes to the Red Cross and is carried, made as short as possible and the wording transposed. This last is a precaution against code messages reaching the enemy. After the words are changed the message is sent to International Red Cross headquarters at Geneva, Switzerland, and there it is again censored, translated into the native tongue of the addressee and forwarded to him.

A return message may be placed on the same form by the person to whom the letter is sent. The words of this, too, are changed. All messages suspected of containing codes are turned over to the army military intelligence office for inspection.

While war-time shipping schedules were in force the Red Cross letters were mailed only once a week. Now a batch goes off every day. Two letters are required in order to send a welfare message and receive the answer.

The messages carry words of reassurance, the value of which cannot be overestimated. News of the shut-ins of Europe is more anxiously awaited by their relatives here than during the fighting, for now they are impatient at the delays in re-establishing communication. Until peace is signed the welfare letters will probably continue to shuttle back and forth. As the little lady in charge of the message says, "We expect to be busy for some time. It looks as though it would be quite a while before peace is really signed."

Couldn't Be Done.
An old negro man went to the doctor for a prescription for some ailment that he had and was given a box of pills.
The next day he returned to the doctor's office and said: "How do you feel now?" asked the doctor.
"Just 'bout de same, sah," answered the negro.
"You get de pills?"
"Yah, sah."
"Did you take them?"
"No, sah."
"Why not?"
"Well, doctah, de label on de box said 'take one pill three times a day.' I feel couldn't understand how Ise gwine ter take one pill more'n once, so I a-come back fer fudder instructions."—(Rocheater Democrat.)

Economists tell us that the scale of wages has increased more than the cost of living. However, one does not meet the affable pork chop cut in popular society nearly as much as before, and the average housewife would rather read an absorbing recipe of new-fangled food substitutes now than the saddest love story ever written.—[Pittsburg Magazine.]

Exit, Sixty-fifth Congress!

What has become of the agent of the Irish republic?

The Danish Cabinet has been—no such good luck for this last of the free.

Not too early to begin to arrange for a safe and sane celebration of St. Patrick's Day.

But seven hundred and thirty more days of Woodrow Wilson. Hurray, old Father Time!

Another American line of manufacture is doing a last-of-its-kind run. That of manufacturing German war trophies.

The Hon. Champ Clark will have to content himself hereafter with a seat on the sidelines. He is no longer "Mistah Speake."

Now, children, all together; we are the names of the Peace Commissioners in Paris, in addition to President Wilson!

The "rubber stamp" has been so manfully discarded by Congress, I was a better force behind legislation than the once famous stamp mill.

It is understood that Victor Horta will be so busy in other domains that he will not have time to confer for service in the Sixty-fifth Congress.

It is understood that Ibrahim Khan, successor of the assassinated Habibullah Khan, ruler of Afghanistan, is a close relation of the late Akhond of Swat.

Social note—President Wilson's return to Europe tomorrow, after spending a few days at the White House. Many old acquaintances called on him during his short stay in this country.

Just as we were beginning to arrange to enjoy ourselves on account of the end of the war comes the announcement that a number of our patriots are arranging to run to the floor. Is there no way of getting rid of the pests?

A day of national thanksgiving and prayer ought to be ordered to show the appreciation of the American people for the retirement of Hon. Clavel Kitchin of North Carolina, N. C., from the post of chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee.

Nobody worth mentioning in the formation of a world peace league, but many of the members of the present draft of the league. Let there be full and free discussion of an agreement that is meant much in the future of the world. Let there be no underhand of America's rights or principles under the proposed pact.

Economic conditions in Europe and other parts of Europe are troubling as the conduct of the war. The situation is menacing and requires the most careful handling. The English Premier is not soft words and his denunciation of the fanatical labor-union leaders leaves no doubt as to just what stands on the proposition that must be put out of business.

President Wilson is a queer pound. The other day he was reduced to United States Senator George Chamberlain of Oregon, the President almost from the chair of the chairmen of his house. Chamberlain has always been a administration man and Democrat; he had the nerve to criticize the conduct of the war. That was beyond the pale of the Wilson ship. As for W. J. Bryan and "At the end of the second year, but no Democratic party."

The old-fashioned opera-going read with regret of the passing of the world-famous prima donna, Adolphine, used to hear her sing in the opera, for she made frequent appearances in the country. Mrs. Pauline was on the February 2nd, making her debut in New York in 1850 as an infantry prodigy, but 15 years of age she sang the role of Lucia, achieving instant success. She has since held first rank as a vocal virtuoso. Her husband, Baron Cedernstrom, is her third.

The pending oil bill in Congress was killed by the filibuster of Senator La Follette. If it were a law it would have put an end to all pending litigation of local Federal court judgments of the order of September, 1909, that have been in various processes of law for a number of years. It would have stabilized the situation in California and elsewhere, sharply defined the rights of operators and the government in oil exploitations, besides saving the operators to pay a reasonable well now in operation.

AT EVEN.

Hush ye! Hush ye! My dear sleepers. Hush ye winds, that are howling row! Hush ye rains, from your weeping! Give him slumber until morning.

Hush ye, yet! In the peace of sleep.

Surely sorrow is all his regret. Tears shall be in the place of sleep. Give him peace for a while, and let him sleep.

Hush ye, hush! he is wakened.

Send his mother his love and his love.

Hush ye winds, from your howling wall! Hush ye, hush ye, my dear sleepers.

MARY A. WILLIAMS.

The soldiers, the men who stalked the world, want a League of Nations. The League of Nations, which has been asked to return from France, has been asked to return from France.

More than a year I have been in touch with the men in this country and in the world. I have seen the men who have been in the world's history. I have seen the men who have been in the world's history.

The new scale made changes in all pipeline workers. GAMING WAITERS FINED.

Ninety Per Cent. of Black Jack Impost, However, Is Suspended.

There was only $4.85 in the pot when the metropolitan squad raided a quiet little game of black jack at the room of Waiters' Union Local No. 17 at Winston and Main streets, but each of the five waiters who were in the game was fined $100 in Police Court yesterday.

"First time I ever heard black jack at 5 cents a point called gambling," remarked one of them to Justice Richardson. "We're all hard-working men. Your Honor, and it was just a little Saturday-night recreation for us, so to speak."

"Well, if you know it's gambling now, and as you seem to be hard-working men, I'll suspend $50 of the fine for two years," remarked the magistrate.

After $10 was paid the clerk for each of the men, who gave their names as Frank, Joe, and Willie, the waiters left.

STRIPS JEWELS FROM FINGERS.

Advanced to the center of the room while the woman stepped to one side. As Mrs. Gubin drew back, surprised, the bandit pointed the gun at her and told her to keep quiet. Mr. Gubin, attracted by the connection, walked into the front room and found himself looking into the gun's muzzle. He was lined up against the wall and told to stand still.

Mrs. Johnson, who followed Mr. Gubin into the room, was met with the same reception, and was lined up against the wall. The woman bandit, still wearing the dark-brown goggles and a heavy veil, then advanced toward Mrs. Gubin.

"If you will only keep still, Mrs. Gubin, and let me see your fingers, I will let you go," she said. "If you will only keep still, Mrs. Gubin, and let me see your fingers, I will let you go."

Mrs. Gubin, according to the reports made to Detective Sergeant Rico and Ticio, with a slight accent, as did the man, who appeared and talked like a Frenchman, said:

"TAKES RING OFF.

The woman then stepped toward Mrs. Gubin and removed a heavy platinum ring set with a large diamond from her finger. She then unclasped a four-inch platinum bar pin, also set with diamonds, and a wrist watch.

Mr. Gubin was in his bath robe, and after a quick glance at him and the pockets, the woman stepped toward him.

"You'll now march upstairs, single file," she called out, and the man, who had been standing by the door, stepped forward. "The first one who tries to call for help will be shot," she said.

Arriving upstairs, the bandit pointed to a clothes closet and told his victims to get inside. Here they locked the door.

Whether the bandits arrived in an automobile the police were unable to learn. The man is described as about 5 feet 9 inches tall. He wore a dark cap and well-made shoes. The woman was described as exceptionally pretty, rather stout, and also well dressed.

BOXER ARRESTED.

Man Who Set Out After Tailor Accused of Battery.

It may be true that it takes nine tailors to make a man. It took only one tailor, however, to lick Louis Rees, iron welder and amateur boxer, and yesterday the Rees was followed up his victory by causing the other's arrest on a charge of battery.

In yesterday's Times was told the tale of how Rees set out to protect his lady friend, even as the knight of old, and of how he was worsted and grievously bitten on the ear and blackened on the eye.

Yesterday afternoon he was hailed by Police Judge Richardson. He pleaded not guilty, and the magistrate will hear both sides of the story a week from this morning. Meanwhile he is at liberty on his own recognizance.

WANTS YELLOW LINES.

Hollywood's Resort on Pacific Electric's Raise Fare Plan.

Hollywood is fishing for yellow cars. The Hollywood Board of Trade, making notice that the Pacific Electric Railway, which operates the street car lines in Hollywood, has asked for permission to increase its rates from 5 to 7 and 8 cents on hauls longer than one and one-half miles from the business center of the city, has asked the State and city engineers to investigate Hollywood street car conditions and see if yellow line service can be provided.

The State Railroad Commission public utility department engineers are now making a survey of the physical and financial condition of the Hollywood Railway Company, and the Hollywood Board of Trade is desirous of having the possibility of service in that district investigated at the same time. The request was filed yesterday with the Board of Public Utilities.

RECONCILIATION RUSE?

Designer Tells Police that Wife Who Came Back Took Many Things.

E. R. Brandt, of 1403 West Ninth street is a designer for a wholesale jewelry house. He and his wife, who, he says, is also a designer, fell out several months ago and have been living apart. Therefore when she came to him and proposed a reconciliation he was surprised, but pleased, he told the police yesterday.

The next morning she sent him to the grocery for a package of breakfast cereal. When he returned his wife was gone, he said. So were three sets of drawing instruments. He told the police. Also his handbag, his camera, some rings and old coins and nine silver teaspoons.

ESTHETIC BURGLAR LOOTS MANY HOMES.

AMONG LOSSES REPORTED. JEWELRY, CHINA, AND ANTIQUES AND MUSIC RECORDS.

The esthetic burglar is rampant. His taste runs from Chinese jade jewelry to silk hosiery, from $4 phonograph records to seventy-five-year-old china, according to reports at the Police Station.

The home of Mrs. M. T. Pettibone at 1938 Canyon drive, Hollywood, was entered by slipping through a rear screen and 11000 worth of jewelry stolen. Among the loot were three valuable diamonds, one of 10 carats, another of gold, with an emerald pendant, and the third of gold.

From F. Sullivan, 1126 West Seventh street, a jade scarf pin, and other jewelry, including gold nuggets from Alaska, worth $400, was taken.

A burglar who handled the jewelry in the home, was caught on the case of a watch, and left taking with him only a pair of ladies' silk stockings, as reported by J. W. Street, of 1442 West Twentieth street.

Mrs. M. E. McCarthy of 2401 West Ninth street, was also missing a gallow at 2448 Raymond avenue. At present this is vacant, and on her weekly visits to the edge of the street she found the $200 worth of Victoria records, most of them Red Seal, had been stolen. Solid silverware worth $100 was also missing.

George W. Beck moved to 2790 West Fifteenth street last Thursday. When he unpacked his goods a few days later he found that some thirty cups and saucers of various patterns had been stolen. Some of this china had been in his family for seventy-five years, he told the police.

RECOGNIZES COMMON LAW MARRIAGES.

PARTIES TO SUCH UNIONS TO GET SAME TAX EXEMPTIONS AS "MARRIED FOLK."

Collector of Internal Revenue Carter went to San Diego yesterday, where he will remain the greater part of the week, assisting Col. R. V. Dodge, who is in charge of that office, to organize the income-tax drive in that part of the Sixth Internal Revenue District. A large number of deputies are operating out of the San Diego office.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Roper yesterday wired Collector Carter's office regarding proportionate reductions that may be made in cases where dependent children become 18 years of age during the past year. In replying to a telegram of inquiry, the commissioner holds that where a child reached the age of 18 years on September 15, 1918, the parent is entitled to a proportionate exemption, amounting to nine-tenths of the 200 for the support of the child. The same exemption would apply, depending on what particular month the child reached 18 or his eighteenth birthday during 1918.

It is also decided that in States where common-law marriages are recognized by the authorities, common-law husbands and wives are to be allowed the same exemption as cohabiting married persons.

The blanks for returns of income in excess of $5000 were received yesterday. They are immediately mailed out to all individuals whose names were on the books at the time of the last income-tax payment.

ADMIT STEALING SHOES.

Jose Luciano and Everett Groce were arraigned before United States Commissioner Long yesterday, on the charge of entering a box car of the Southern Pacific in Interstate commerce, at Indio, and stealing two cartons of shoes. They were held to the grand jury in a bond of $500.

Both of the defendants, who are men's boys, acknowledged their guilt, and wanted to be taken before the court immediately for sentence.

HOLDING HANDS COSTLY.

After dining well at a Sunset boulevard restaurant, Fred Allen, 2200 West Avenue Thirty, made no objection when his companions proposed holding hands. His companions were men, however, and one of them held his hands so tightly that he was unable to prevent the other from taking $10 and two watches from his pockets.

ON THE BLACKLIST.

Names of Alois Schelbert, Neil Arvid Nelson, Robert Steiger and Armand Harold Adrian d'Aleria, were placed on the naturalization blacklist by United States District Judge Hildesoe, yesterday, on motion of Naturalization Examiner Jones.

All of these aliens withdrew their declarations of intention to become American citizens, when called upon to register for the draft. As they did not want to fight for the United States, they are to be forever debarred from seeking American citizenship.

Nelson is a Swede, Schelbert and Steiger are Swiss, and d'Aleria is a Spaniard.

Examiner Jones has a score of similar cases that will be presented to the Federal and Superior courts, like actions involving the aliens in all parts of Southern California.

NO NEED TO TESTIFY.

Dentist Goes to Court, but Wife Withdraws Divorce Action.

Dr. John Morrison Keagy, a wealthy dentist, walked into Judge Taft's court yesterday and walked out again without having to say a word in the divorce suit of Zella J. Keagy. She was asking for alimony, but when the case was called her attorney requested that it be dismissed, and the motion was granted.

It appeared that Dr. Keagy had been told by his wife that the divorce action was instituted. This would be a bar to prosecuting the suit. It also appears that Mrs. Keagy has an income of $75 a month from her own property; further, that Dr. Keagy gave her jewelry valued at $2000.

ALL CLEANED UP.

The American-avenue school, Long Beach, which was destroyed by fire December 27, 1918, was insured for $20,000, and this sum was turned over to County Treasurer Judge of Education of that city, yesterday. This represents a complete settlement of the eleven insurance companies carrying policies on the building. Long Beach expects to construct on the grounds a modern school building to cost $150,000.

SEEK MISSING FARMER.

The wife and friends of Sebastian Nunes, a farmer of Santa Maria, who left his home on February 15, have had instituted a search here for him. When he left home he said he was going to visit his father at Watsonville, but he did not reach there. He is 34 years old and is said to have no troubles that would account for his disappearance.

SUES FOR ALLEGED ATTACK.

W. N. Gannon yesterday filed suit against Morris & Co. and E. G. Learmont, asking $10,000 damages for an alleged assault committed upon him by Mr. Learmont. Mr. Gannon says that he was in the plant to transact business with the company and that Mr. Learmont knocked him off a loading platform.

BROWN CASE OVER.

The case of H. W. Brown, accused of beating his son by the same name, was continued yesterday because of the illness of Judge Willis. Brown is a prominent member of the Santa Monica Elmer Club. It is alleged that shortly after the boy was brought to the Sheriff's office he was seen on his body marked by a short P. A. whip. The case will come up today.

DAMAGE SUIT SETTLED.

Because, as alleged, a trailer became detached from the automobile driven by John Kirkham and swerved to the side of the road, striking the baby cab in front of a suit for $5000 was filed by the infant's guardian, Paul F. Ivey. When the case was called for trial in Judge Valentine's court yesterday, it was announced that it had been settled out of court.

Green. Mr. Glass has been connected with public service corporations in Los Angeles for the past twenty-two years.

GERMANS ATTACK POLES.

Demonstration in Berlin is Quelled by Hun Troops.

Reception to African Commander Like Old Regime.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sunday, March 3.—During a demonstration on the return of Gen. Von Lettow-Vorbeck and some of his East African troops this afternoon, a crowd of enthusiasts shook fists and sticks at a number of American officers sitting in the windows of the hotel where the American mission is quartered.

Other in the crowd countered by clapping their hands and cheering the Americans. The officers promptly withdrew when they saw that their presence might provoke trouble.

The hostile crowd hung around the hotel for a long time and made offensive remarks about the French revolution brought about a collapse of the dual monarchy. It was clear to everybody that we had the right, by virtue of the fact that we had the right to be united. If the principle of nationality is henceforth to be the supreme principle, there ought not to be an exception made of the German nation.

For the union to be fruitful, both parties must agree. The householder and the soldier must not lose their particular institutions. We must learn to understand each other and neither party must dominate the other. We have the advantage of experience in entering upon this task and we shall surmount all difficulties in our path.

COBLENZ, March 2.—Carnival festivities among civilians have been prohibited by the Coblenz government for the remainder of the year. Throwing of stones and the use of fireworks are also prohibited.

MUNICH, Feb. 2.—The Soldiers' and Workmen's Congress has rejected, by a vote of 234 to 70, a motion reading: "The Socialist republic of councils is proclaimed and legislation."

MISSOURI PLANS LAW CODE FOR CHILDREN.

LEGISLATURE CONSIDERS MEASURES AFFECTING CHILD WELFARE.

[BY A. P. CORRESPONDENT.]

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 25.—Welfare organizations in this and other countries and State and government officials are closely watching the progress of the "Missouri Children's Code," now before the State Legislature.

The code provides for support of children born out of wedlock, raises the age of consent to 16 years; establishes the marriage age at 15; abolishes common law marriages; provides for punishment of adults responsible for child delinquency; establishes a State bureau for mental defectives at the University of Missouri to serve as a center for the study of mental defectives; and provides special classes in public schools for feeble-minded, deaf, blind and epileptic children.

The code also provides for the employment of children under 14 in any occupation unless an employment certificate has been obtained, except during vacation periods of over 12 years and girls past 18 child earnings in street trades if licensed and subject to with after special examinations. Children under 16 could not work as night messengers. Special permits for night work for children under 16 would be required for children under 16 working in power machinery, or on the stage.

Completion of the eighth grade would be necessary before employment certificates were issued, and the compulsory school attendance act would be amended to require the child to attend school until the eighth grade. Poverty of parents would not be grounds for school exemption.

The State Board of Health would have charge of a division of child hygiene and would regulate conditions and provide special examinations. School authorities would be required to open schools for public health and community purposes.

The county superintendent of public welfare would be charged with administering the code, and with his assistants, would act as probation, attendance and parole officers for children under 16. Canadian social service leagues, universities throughout America, directors of State welfare commissions, army and navy departments in Hawaii and Bujaire Aires, public library associations and various other groups are expected to be requested to furnish information as to the details of the code. The proposed laws will be debated from all angles by special committees on the two houses before being brought up for action.

WINTER DAYS ALONG THE RHINE. CLOSED SEASON FOR WILD BOAR AND OTHER GAME, AS WELL AS FOR BOWS.

[From Stars and Stripes.] Although the bridgework dogs are full of rabbits, hare, fox and wild boar, and although the soldier's fingers itch to pull the trigger on this tempting game, the military authorities have put into effect a closed-season edict. The basis for the edict is the fact that the soldiers' rifles carry too far and that someone, soldiers or civilians, would be liable for the men were permitted to range indiscriminately over the woods.

But old Farmer Hans is sorry. Just the same. He claims the rabbits and have been bred in such prodigious quantities since the beginning of the war that they are likely to ruin his crops next year if some means is not taken to curb them.

A staff car, scolding down from Dierdorf, headquarters of the Third Division, came upon a limping dog, with full equipment, making his way laboriously over the icy roadway through the snowy woods. An infantry captain in the car asked the driver to slow down and inquired of the soldier where he was going. The response was: "I am going to the front."

He had developed some feet and had fallen out, and had been left far behind.

He was given a lift, and when the village in which his unit was quartered was reached, proud were his hand waves and amazed were his comrades. "Sure, but one over on the front," he chuckled, as he clambered with his pack on his back (he wouldn't take it off), "but what gets me most is that this is the first time I've had since I landed—and I had to come to Germany to get it."

Speaking of firsts, they seem to be happening frequently in Germany. One of the most popular is an ice cream shop in Coblenz, where many soldiers are tasting their first ice cream. The confection is an ice cream with chocolate sauce.

GERMANS JEER OUR OFFICERS.

Reception to African Commander Like Old Regime.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sunday, March 3.—During a demonstration on the return of Gen. Von Lettow-Vorbeck and some of his East African troops this afternoon, a crowd of enthusiasts shook fists and sticks at a number of American officers sitting in the windows of the hotel where the American mission is quartered.

Other in the crowd countered by clapping their hands and cheering the Americans. The officers promptly withdrew when they saw that their presence might provoke trouble.

The hostile crowd hung around the hotel for a long time and made offensive remarks about the French revolution brought about a collapse of the dual monarchy. It was clear to everybody that we had the right, by virtue of the fact that we had the right to be united. If the principle of nationality is henceforth to be the supreme principle, there ought not to be an exception made of the German nation.

For the union to be fruitful, both parties must agree. The householder and the soldier must not lose their particular institutions. We must learn to understand each other and neither party must dominate the other. We have the advantage of experience in entering upon this task and we shall surmount all difficulties in our path.

COBLENZ, March 2.—Carnival festivities among civilians have been prohibited by the Coblenz government for the remainder of the year. Throwing of stones and the use of fireworks are also prohibited.

MUNICH, Feb. 2.—The Soldiers' and Workmen's Congress has rejected, by a vote of 234 to 70, a motion reading: "The Socialist republic of councils is proclaimed and legislation."

SPARTACAN REPUBLIC OF BRUNSWICK LISTS.

[BY A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT.]

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—Various Spartacan republics which from time to time were established in Germany were short-lived, with the exception of the "Socialist Republic of Brunswick," which even after the election throughout Germany, continued to defy the central government in every possible manner and did not hesitate to insult the most exalted members of the Berlin cabinet. One Berlin paper referred to the new state as "The Fool's Republic of Brunswick."

The President of Brunswick is named Meiges. He left his apprenticeship as a tailor and has made an uncertain living as a "bushelman." His wife still retains her position as an usher in a Brunswick theater, and is quoted by her neighbors as having said: "None of my husband's party ever lasted very long, and it will be the same with this one, so I am keeping my job."

The Vice-President of Brunswick is a juggler who was appearing daily in a cabaret before the establishment of the "republic." The Minister of Education is a woman named Fasshauer, who was once a domestic servant, and later employed as a chambermaid by a woman's club. She has become a laundress.

The office of police president is held by a locksmith, who, it is said, objected to taking the place because he had no faith in its permanency.

That is, Judge Taft Gives Them Prior Chance to Discuss Alimony.

Defendant in All the Cases Under Taft Order.

Petroleum King is Clever at Fencing with Attorneys.

ABLE TO PAY, MADE TO LIVE IN GARAGE?

SISTER OF SICK MAN BRINGS CHARGES AGAINST BROTHER.

Alleging that Eddie Beargeon, who is suffering from an incurable disease, was made to live all winter in a garage at Strawberry Park without sufficient heat or suitable clothing, although he had an estate of $3000, Mrs. Clara A. La Blanc, the man's sister, yesterday filed a legal guardian.

Mrs. La Blanc, who lives at 921 North Mott street, alleges that her brother was left $3000 by her father, now deceased, the sum to be held in trust for his care by Philip, another brother, who was said to have been handling the money and care for the sick man.

She alleges that when Eddie's brothers and sisters call to see him, the other brother threatens to expel them from the place, that she sent a physician to examine the sick man, and he was told a physician was treating him. She says that Eddie was taken to a free clinic in Los Angeles for treatment. She alleges that Ephraim is not a fit person to care for the sick brother or his estate.

HUNDRED A MONTH IS TEMPORARY ALIMONY.

THOMAS KIMBALL LITCH WILL PAY IT PENDING MAIN- TENANCE SUIT.

Until Mrs. Maurine O. Kimball's suit for separate maintenance is tried, it was stipulated between the attorneys yesterday that Thomas Kimball Litch will pay her $100 a month alimony. The stipulation was approved by Judge Taft. The court also released a restraining order which tied up Mr. Litch's securities and other property aggregating $50,000. In the court matter yesterday J. R. Rubin represented Mrs. Kimball and H. L. Giesler was present for Mr. Litch.

The defendant is the nephew of a deceased steel manufacturer of Pittsburgh, who left him a fortune. Mrs. Kimball was married to him at Albuquerque under the name of Kimball. It subsequently developed that he had another wife living from whom he was not divorced at the time of the New Mexico marriage. This was followed by a statement that he was Thomas K. Litch and not Kimball. In an interview, Mr. Litch stated that women hounded him for his money.

FOR THE TUBERCULAR.

New Camp Near San Fernando to be Provided by County.

About 300 children were accommodated at the Devil's Gate camp last year, and results were so good, that the Supervisors were appealed to yesterday to provide grounds for a larger camp. This assurance was given to Mrs. H. T. Wright and Miss Sidney M. McGuire, representing the Los Angeles Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. The new camp will be on county property near San Fernando.

CRIMINALLY NEGLIGENT?

Arraign Elevator Man Who Caused Injury to Passenger.

That criminal negligence on the part of Ferdinand Beretta, an elevator operator at the Sherry Building, caused great injury to Henry Eitz, passenger, will be the contention of the District Attorney's office at the hearing tomorrow. A warrant was issued yesterday by Deputy District Attorney McCartney, accusing Beretta on two counts, first, of an attempt to commit great bodily injury, and the other for attempted manslaughter.

Mr. Eitz lost a foot as the result of the accident when he was caught between the elevator and a floor. He is in a serious condition at the Clara Barton Hospital.

Beretta was arraigned yesterday before Justice Brown.

GERMANY LLOYD

Great Britain Civilization of Britain

(BY ATLANTIC)

LONDON, March 4.—A striking speech today at industrial council of employment was appointed last week. The Premier said he was aware, which he hoped was factory, the peace of the

"I thought it important to come here to just say a few words to you because you also are sitting as a peace congress the importance of which, I am sure, must have impressed itself upon your mind. It probably is more important in its bearing, not merely upon the settlement of immediate problems but on the settlement of the future of this country, than perhaps you may realize.

"The world is in a state of confusion and unrest. Russia has gone to pieces and the symptoms are that Germany also is going to pieces. There is a lack of cohesion; there is a lack of definite indication of the way in which the country is going to march. Suffering is beginning to be very acute and is spreading. It should not be a bit surprised if the old country, not for the first time, would be the land that will save civilization in more senses than one and I should like you to do it. You may be making a great contribution, to which all lands will turn and say:

"Let us follow Britain."

"It is not the first time that Britain has given the principles upon which liberty and democratic government have been settled in other lands. I want Britain to save civilization this time. But civilization cannot be saved by the trial of any one class. It can only be saved by the triumph of justice and fair play of all classes. That is the spirit in which I want to approach the great problems in front of us.

"Don't try each to get the advantage of the other. This is not a court wherein all are advocates and one presents his case with the hope of getting a verdict for his own side. You are judges. You are trustees for the whole country, for millions of working people and, above all, those whom you would not classify strictly in your category, but who are all, at any rate, part of this great band.

"I say to the employers that they might get voluntary advantages which would in the end ruin them. They must look at the long run, if they want the whole fabric to be secured. They must see that the foundations are secure. If they are not, they have got to be uprooted.

"On the other hand, I say to the workers that what is happening in Germany, and what may happen in Russia, shows that, while the immediate sections may appear to be triumphant, incoherent horrors are being suffered in those countries. A small section of the working classes there are suffering unimaginable distress.

"Therefore, what is needed is a generous community where prosperity is insured for all. We must have no unemployment. This can and must be done.

"What is wanted between employers and workers is more confidence and more understanding."

UNION AGITATORS ARE REPUDIATED BY SEATTLE VOTERS.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)

SEATTLE, March 4.—City Councilmen C. B. Fitzgerald, W. H. Thompson and R. H. Thompson repudiated today over three union-labor agitators by large majorities. A heavy vote was cast.

Seattle's citizens "by their ballots today repudiated attempts to establish much as they repudiated here today by police authority a few weeks ago," Mayor Ole Hanson declared in a statement at the conclusion of his gratification at the election of three City Councilmen.

"I am gratified by the way the people of this city have backed me in this election," he continued. "This election is a repudiation of the union-labor agitators who have been causing so much trouble in this city. I am confident that the people of this city will continue to back me in my efforts to maintain law and order and to protect the interests of the city."

NEW YORK, March 4.—Members of the War Labor Board met today and resumed consideration of complaints filed with the board from various parts of the country, but no cases were announced. About 100 cases still are awaiting settlement.
